

Has Your Home These Three Essentials?

It is what you put into the home that makes or mars its home-like atmosphere.

You must have real necessities that contribute to comfort.

You must have harmony between the various pieces of furniture.

You must have quality, which means service, returned for the expenditure.

In all these points of service, this store is particularly able to render the utmost. Whether your needs be that of a single piece or that of completely furnishing the home, you will find it worth while to inspect what we have to offer.

And now that fireside comforts are so emphasized by the season, it surely is the time to make the living-room pleasant to live in. We have just the things that will enable you to enjoy this room—from reading lamp to card or smoker's table.

Ours is just as much a store for those who want to see nice things as those who come to buy—for we are proud enough of our goods to gladly show them.

This Is Your Invitation to Barre's Newest Clothes
Shop for Men

It would not be in line with the principles of these times to have a formal opening and spend money for music and flowers, so please consider this your invitation.

Saturday morning the doors will be wide open, and you will find here a store devoid of display, but brim full of the finest stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Shoes and Furnishings to be found in this state.

Just a word as to prices. Lamorey's merchandise will speak for itself on the question of value. You will find prices here that we know offer to every man opportunity.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Bert Hutchins of Moretown is renewing acquaintances with Barre friends. Miss Gertrude Townsend of Hardwick has been passing a week with friends in Barre.

B. A. Eastman of Camp street has been passing several days at St. Bernard club in Canada.

Because of the epidemic, the Netop class of the Methodist church will not hold its usual session to-morrow.

Rev. B. J. Lehigh of the First Baptist church will conduct services in Washington Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. T. of Randolph are passing some time in the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. L. Scott, of Park street.

Lieut. George S. DeMerell of Cleveland, O., is passing a furlough in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brown of Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Taylor and Mrs. Maude Pierce returned to their home in Hardwick yesterday, after spending a few days with friends in Barre.

Mrs. Edward Jackson of St. Albans, Me., who is teaching in the city schools, is residing in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson of South Main street.

Mrs. Walter L. Wilcox and little daughter of Moretown are visiting in the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Slayton, of South Main street.

G. L. Woodworth, who used to conduct a tonorial establishment in the Durkee block, has been drafted to supply in the barber shortage and is working at Miers' downtown shop.

Mrs. Floyd Stanton and Miss Jane Watkins of Montreal, P. Q., are at the home of their mother, Mrs. Mary Watkins of Summer street, having been called here by the death of their brother, Henry Watkins.

All stores, members of the Barre Retail Merchants' association, Inc., on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1918, will observe the following closing hours: Monday, 8:30 p. m.; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, at 8:30 p. m.; Saturday at 9:30 p. m.

Mrs. Edward Barr of Hardwick has been passing several days in the home of Dr. O. E. Barr of Cottage street, having been called here by the illness of her son, Aginaldo and Eddio, who enrolled as students at Spaulding high school last week.

Dana Comstock has returned from Randolph, where he was called by the death of his brother, Benjamin Comstock. Among others from this city who attended the funeral were Dana Robinson and son, Clarence, of South Barre.

A photograph of the Headquarters company of the 57th pioneers, recently stationed at Spartanburg, S. C., is shown in the window of F. H. Rogers & Co. Many familiar faces are to be noted in the company, which was recruited in Barre before the outbreak of the war.

Miss Edith Reid, assistant librarian at the Aldrich public library, has returned to Barre, after an extended vacation, a part of which she passed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reid, in Forest Hills, N. J. The public librarian, Miss Ruth Parker of Spaulding street, is detained at home by illness.

The American Red Cross asks every body to contribute for relief of the destitute Belgians every kind of useful garment for all ages and both sexes; also sheeting, blankets and woolen goods of any kind, and shoes of any size. A committee will be at the Church street school building from 9 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m. to receive contributions.

His small force of messenger boys depleted by the grip, the Barre office of the Western Union has resorted to the employment of girls to deliver messages. Yesterday Miss Eunice Eager of Prospect street came to the rescue of the local manager and aided materially in clearing the desk of messages, which are coming in an unusually large volume just now.

Dr. J. A. Wark, who resigned as city physician and gave up his practice in Barre last spring to accept a lieutenantcy in the medical corps, is now with the advance post command, headquarters, of the first army corps in France, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Wark, of Hardwick. He was transferred to his new post on the day following the evacuation of Chateau Thierry and saw service throughout the entire drive.

Funeral services for Seaman James McIntosh, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of Elmwood avenue, whose death occurred at the Brooklyn navy yard on Wednesday after a brief illness, will be held in the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Edgar Crossland, the pastor, officiating. There will be a prayer service at the house at 2 p. m. Interment is to be made in the family lot at Elmwood cemetery. The body, accompanied by Mrs. Taylor and her son, Robert Taylor, arrived in Barre Friday afternoon.

The body of Supply Sergeant Robert Brown, whose death occurred at Camp Devens, arrived in the city this morning in charge of his brothers, William and George. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. John Brown, the deceased's mother, at 15 Bassett street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. L. Goodspeed, pastor of the Congregational church, will officiate, and Rev. J. B. Reardon of the Universalist church will assist in the services. Interment is to be made in the family lot at Hope cemetery.

Through two weeks of almost continuous rain and over a route that carried them 950 miles from home, H. A. Barnhart and two sons of Chillicothe, O., arrived in the city yesterday and are registered at Hotel Barre, while Mr. Barnhart, sr., attends to the consignment of several carloads of finished Barre granite and purchases additional memorials for the Barnhart Granite Co. Father and sons left Chillicothe Monday and made a rather leisurely journey of it, stopping at several points on the way. While here they are to call on manufacturers in Barre, Montpelier and Waterbury. They report that the best stretch of road encountered on the road came after they had crossed the mountains from Rutland. From North Royalton to Barre they were much impressed with the excellent condition of the highways. Williamstown gulf, they decided, was one of the most attractive bits of scenery in the East. Mr. Barnhart has been a regular buyer of Barre granite and an occasional visitor here for 20 years.

Notice.

Evangelist F. S. Hartwell will speak Sunday night at 7:45 at the K. of P. hall. The subject, "Proof from the Bible That the Kaiser Cannot Win," will be of special interest and will begin a series of free prophetic lectures to be held Sunday and Thursday evenings.

Notice.

A special meeting of Barre branch, Granite Cutters' International association, will be held in the Barre opera house Saturday, Sept. 28, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Important business. J. D. Will, secretary.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Have you called at the Church street school building with your gifts for relief of those suffering Belgians?

Paul D. Melcher, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Melcher of Park street, left to-day for Houghton, Mich., where he is a student in a school of mines.

A freak potato of generous girth, grown by G. A. Golden, is exhibited at the Drown pharmacy. The tuber would be conspicuous in a bushel of turnips by reason of its peculiar protuberances.

The death of Ivan C. Pillsbury, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pillsbury of 126 Elm street, occurred this morning at 3 o'clock. The remains were taken to-day to Groton for the funeral and interment.

F. A. Slayton returned yesterday from Northfield in charge of his string of race horses, which were entered for the turf events at the Dog River Valley fair. In the two races which the weather permitted, Mr. Slayton's horses were in the money.

A telegram received here yesterday from Alderman D. J. McMillan, who was recalled to Camp Upton by the serious illness of his brother, Private Ronald McMillan, said that the young man seemed to be holding his own, and that his chances for recovery were improved.

The Chicago company which publishes the American Stone Trade yesterday vacated its branch office in the Campbell building, and a part of the furniture is being shipped west. A. Church, who has been employed by the company here, is preparing to move to Ballows Falls, where he has work with the Vermont Farm Machinery Co. Fred K. Irvine, publisher of the American Stone Trade, has returned to his home in Chicago, after passing a week in the Barre district.

Giuseppe Pellegrini of Fox street returned this morning from Yaphank, L. I., where he was called by the illness and death of his cousin, Private Zeno Pellegrini, who passed away after a short illness of the grip. Through a conflict of telegrams, the body of the young man was buried in the cantonment cemetery at Camp Upton, but Barre friends and relatives are planning to have the remains disinterred and shipped to Barre for final interment. Private Pellegrini's near relatives are all in Italy.

A copy of "The Stars and Stripes," official newspaper of the American expeditionary forces in France, has been received by V. E. Ayers of Ayers street. The journal fairly breathes the enthusiasm which permeates the Yankee fighters over there, and so far as the censor permits, it gives a faithful account of doings in and back of the trenches. A number of fine verses written by soldiers appear in the copy, as well as humorous matter. The latter would do credit to some of the most talented press humorists in America, and evidently a ripe wit has been struck by the Americans during their momentous sojourn overseas.

After vacating the south store apartment in the Miles granite building, now occupied by the Diversi Fruit Co., the Lamorey Clothing Co. has reopened its business in the south part of the old town house, which has been refurnished inside and improved on the exterior by the addition of an attractive front. The company is having its opening to-day and solicits visits of inspection as the new store is freshly stocked and well appointed. Two capacious display windows, flanking a central entrance, have entirely transformed the front of the establishment. The windows are well lighted. A roomy interior has dimensions of 100 and 24 feet. A. A. Lamorey is to have his office in the rear, where the tailoring department also will be located. The proprietor states that the low rent will enable him to feature low prices. New showcases and other furnishings have been added to the store.

The body of Walter Geake, a former resident of Granvilleville and Williams-town, whose death occurred in Berlin, N. H., Tuesday night, was brought to Barre over the Central Vermont railroad Friday afternoon and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Richard Seeley of the Websterville road, where the funeral this afternoon was followed by interment in the Wilson cemetery. Mr. Geake was around 34 years old and was employed for several years on the quarries. Afterward he went to Boston, and thence to Berlin, where he was employed when stricken with his last illness. Besides the sister already mentioned, he leaves a second sister, Mrs. Herbert Reed of Berlin, and four brothers, as follows: John Geake, who is training with the tank corps in Gettysburg, Pa.; George Geake and Edward Geake, who live at the home of their parents in Williams-town, and Archie Geake, who lives nearby in Williams-town. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Geake of Williams-town.

MOSES NAMED FOR SENATE.

Republican Convention at Concord, N. H., Gives Him 450 Votes.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 28.—Hon. George H. Moses of Concord was nominated for United States senator by the Vermont Republican senatorial caucus here yesterday. The vote was 450 for Mr. Moses, 201 for former Governor Rolland H. Spaulding of Rochester and one for Irving W. Draw of Lancaster, now holding the senatorial seat by gubernatorial appointment.

Attractive Dress Values

2200—Ladies' Dress
Size 34, 36, 38, 40,
42 inches bust measure.

While in the market last week, we were able to pick up some Wool and Silk Dresses in values and styles that are above the ordinary.

These are an All-Wool Botany Serge, made up in the latest style of the season. They are Dresses that are now priced at about the old prices. See this line of Dresses in our north show window.

These Dresses at only $14.00 and $15.00 each are values that we can give you for a short time only. They are made by a manufacturer who bought heavily of Serges before the great advance and is giving the trade the advantage of his foresight. When these cloths are exhausted, we will have to get the advance price on our duplicates. See these Dress values while the line is complete.

Ladies' Silk and Satin Dresses

In this Dress Sale which we are now displaying is a lot of Silk and Satin Dresses that are priced at much less than the price of Silk would warrant to-day. These are made from fine Taffeta Silk and Messalines, the styles are new, and you will find a large variety of individual models. These are values we will not be able to duplicate at the prices now offered. We are putting these out at the special prices of $15.00 and $18.00 each. When you figure the price of Silk to-day, you will hardly see how such a Dress can be made. These are real Dress values and will be picked up very quickly. See the line while your size is here.

Satin and Silk Skirts

We have just received a large line of Ladies' Silk and Messaline Skirts. These are mostly in Blacks, but there are a few colors. They are made in a variety of the season's best styles and are values that are exceedingly reasonable. When you figure the price of silks to-day and then see these Skirt values at $5.50, $6.50, $7.50, $8.50 to $16.50, you can realize what these Skirt values are. This is good, clean merchandise at a good saving in price to you. If you are to need a Skirt for the fall or winter wear, see this line of popular Skirts.

Many Blouses for the Economical

A war-time wardrobe may consist of many Blouses with a few Skirts, if the wearer is economical. Blouses are very essential for every lady, and none can have too many of these essentials. We are now showing a large line of Silks and Volles in a variety of the season's best styles. We have another lot of those special Jap Silk Waists in White, Black and colors. These are Waists that launder like muslin and have an unusual amount of good wear in them. The price is only $2.00 each.

In Our Millinery Department

Our Millinery Department is now full of the season's new Millinery styles. The price is such as you will appreciate, and the quality is the season's best. We have new models now by nearly every express, and would be pleased to have you see the line while it is complete.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Enrico Mancini left this morning for Little Falls, N. Y., where she is to make her home with relatives.

Mrs. William Embley of Maple avenue returned this morning from Boston and Quincy, Mass., where she has been visiting her sons.

Miss Genevieve McCann of Portland, Me., arrived in the city this morning to take up her work at Goddard seminary. Cotton picked from a field near Camp Wadsworth at Spartanburg, S. C., by Sergt. W. S. Luce is shown in the window of the Barre news agency.

The millinery rooms of Mrs. Witham will be closed all day Monday, Sept. 30, for removal of goods to the store formerly occupied by Mrs. Laviolette, 94 North Main street. Millinery opening days, Oct. 1, 2.

Miss Frances Hebard, a teacher in the St. Johnsbury public schools, visited her aunt, Mrs. S. D. Allen of Franklin street, on her way to her home in Randolph Center yesterday, the schools in St. Johnsbury having been closed for a week. George L. Hunt, chairman of the community labor board, has appointed Miss Marguerite Roberts of Barre, employed in the Barre office, as clerk of the community board. The board is organizing and will appoint a man in each town in the county. On account of the size of the cities, two men will be appointed for Barre and two for Montpelier, but there will be one only in each of the other places.

DO IT FIRST WEEK.

Is Plea of E. R. Morse on Fourth Liberty Loan Drive.

E. R. Morse, chairman for Vermont, makes this appeal for the fighting fourth Liberty loan: The people of the Green Mountain state, always loyal and patriotic, are once again called upon. Vermont's allotment of the six billion dollars is thirteen million, two hundred and two thousand, three hundred dollars. It must be subscribed. Our boys in France are fighting now. Help them by buying now. Let us do it during the first week. It is the duty of each Vermonter to see that this is done.
